

Active Passive voice

1. Tense of a sentence does not change when it is converted from one active to passive voice and vice versa,
2. In a passive voice, only the past participle or third form of a verb is used.
3. Use of pronouns follow the rule of nominative case and Objective case. i.e.
 - If personal pronoun comes before verb, nominative case is used

I wash school bag every Sunday (Nominative case)

- If personal pronoun comes after verb, then objective case is used.

School bag is washed by me. (Objective case)

Nominative case	Objective case
I	me
She	her
They	them
We	us
He	him
It	it
You	You

It is me who is to be blamed and not she

It is I who is to be blamed and not her.

4. Following rules are applied while changing from active to passive form.

S.no	Tense	Helping verbs	Active voice	Passive voice
1.	Simple Present	I form of verb	I wash my school bag	School bag is washed by me
			He washes his bag	School bag is washed by him
			I wash school bags	School bags are washed by me
2.	Present Continuous	Is /am/ are	I am writing a letter	Letter is being written
			I am writing letters	Letters are being written
3.	Present Perfect	Has / have	I have called my parents	My parents have been called
			I have taken a pair of shoes	A pair of shoes has been taken
4.	Simple past	II form of verb	I searched for a decent dress to wear yesterday	A decent dress was searched
			I searched for	Cold drinks were

			cold drinks in kitchen	searched by me
5.	Past Continuous	Was/ were	They were picking garbage from floor	Garbage was being picked
			Reena was calling her friends yesterday	Friends were being called by Reena yesterday
6.	Past perfect	Had	She had called cops yesterday before the fight broke out	Cops had been called yesterday by her.
7.	Simple future	Shall/ will	I shall call him tonight	He shall be called
	modals	Can/ may/must	I can pay your bills	Your bills can be paid

Where passive voice is used:

- Something that does not occur naturally but requires deliberate effort

For eg.

- 1) Rice grows all over Jammu.

Rice is grown all over Jammu

Practice Sentences: (Active to passive)

- 2) People elect new PM every five years in Pakistan
- 3) The panel is looking into the matter
- 4) His new haircut has surprised his parents
- 5) He cooks dinner for his family every Saturday
- 6) The police produced main witness before the court yesterday
- 7) No one desires such rude reply.
- 8) The cashier took a cheque from a customer
- 9) She has checked all rooms before leaving just now
- 10) A child asks many questions.
- 11) The king has ordered a new rule for travelling for his people.
- 12) Go away
- 13) Shut the door.

(Passive to active)

- 1) He was helped by none.
- 2) We are being followed by a car
- 3) Russians are being targeted by American Soldiers

- 4) You have been asked a question by the jury.
- 5) Ripe mangoes were being plucked by children playing in an orchard.
- 6) He was sentenced to life time imprisonment by the judge, an hour ago.
- 7) An email has been sent to her by the Examination Cell.
- 8) We have been asked to throw our used masks in a covered bin.
- 9) You rare ordered to go away.
- 10) Let that door be shut.

Passive voice cannot be formed with Intransitive verbs/sentence

Intransitive (direct object is lacking)	Transitive (direct object is mentioned)
1.She has been singing since morning	She has been singing a song since morning
2. We shall drive smoothly once we leave this crowded place.	We shall drive a car smoothly once we leave this crowded place
3.she is swimming in a pool	-----
4.she squeals as she swings up and down	-----
5.He has cooked for all	He has cooked food for all