

Redundancy: Wordiness

How to be concise:

How to remove unnecessary usage of words in sentences.

1. You should try to be more better.
2. At 12am midnight I rose to a sound of screeching breaks.
3. In my past experiences, I have never come across such an unusual case.
4. So it is finally final after all.
5. Let me know if it is sufficient enough for you.
6. Students were asked to proceed forward with their admit cards toward the main gate.
7. She was taken aback by an unexpectedly sudden call from son's school in the middle of day.
8. She got a surprise when her name was announced as a sole and only lottery winner.
9. Both answers were exactly same.
10. She said herself that her new office where she worked did not suit her.
11. It is a basic fact that the sun goes round the sun.
12. He wailed loudly when he heard the news of his brother's death.
13. Why are you shouting loudly?
14. Kindly finish it completely before you leave
15. He rushed quickly towards the ambulance that carried injured.
16. Where are the two twins playing?
17. Kindly look at the following instructions given below.
18. She herself has confessed that she did call Police station after the crime.
19. Our past history has never witnessed such bravery before.
20. She was warned of the aftermaths and consequences if she decided on the second choice.
21. I shall revert back as soon as possible.
22. This pool is meant for old and senior citizens.
23. The ingredients of two pools were merged together.
24. This is a true fact.
25. Are elevated highways the only answer to Delhi's road traffic jam problem?
26. He ordered for a cup of tea.
27. Do not enter into room without permission.
28. She returned back to work after a week's holiday.
29. Is there sufficient enough food in your plate?
30. Despite of my repeated warnings, you have come late.
31. If you ask me, then I shall reply.
32. He was inaudible without a mike and could not be heard.
33. Kindly order for a cup of coffee.